

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair is planning to use the public airwaves to push a one-sided agenda. I don't think it's fair for them to do this on public airwaves without showing the other side of the issue. And calling a bunch of one-sided lies news should be illegal.

Please change the consolidation rules so that these types of power abuse don't continue to happen. They may be on your side now, Mr. Powell. But they might not always be. You really should do something about this now.

Please help save our fragile democracy before it's too late.
